AMHERST COUNTY COURT.

Preparations for the Building of Sweet Brief Institute.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)
AMHERST, VA., Jan. 21.—A special grand jury of Amherst County Court brought in the following indictments yesterday: Thomas M. Viar, of the town of Madison, for betrayal; Howard Willis "Indian," from Bear Mountain, for horsestealing. Willis was tried at the De-cember term of the County Court for this same offense, found guilty and sentenced to two years' confinement in the State penitentiary, but his counsel, Mr. William K. Allen, by a technicality, had the verdict set aside and the prisoner granted a new trial, which is set for the third day of the February term.

Charles Hendricks, who halls from the headwaters of Piny River, had two inelictments brought in against him for malicious assault. Ways and Means Committee Hears Argument as to Cuba.

SUSPICION OF POISON TOBACCO, SUGAR INTERESTS

They Protest Against Bearing All the Buredu of Relief Fuanished the Indus. tries of the Pearl of the Antilles.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 21.—The Ways and Means Confinitee to-day resumed its hearings on the Cuban reciprocity with special reference to the proposed reduction on Cuban tobacco. The tobac-co interests of the United States were largely represented, the officers of the Large Leaf Manufactures' and Growers'

John R. Young, president of the National Leaf Tobacco Association, made an earnest plea against any tobacco concessions to Cuba. He said there undoubtedly was a public sentiment in favor of granting relief to Cuba, but he contended that was chould be as just to contended that we should be as just to the people of our own country as to the people of foreign countries. The purpose of the movement for re-ciprocity, he said, was to have the whole expense of Cuban relief fall upon two American industries—tobacco and sugar. There was now a tobacco acreage in Ohio of 35,000 acres; Wisconsin, 25,000; Pennsylvania, 22,000; New York, 72,000; Connecticut, 11,000; and several thousand acres in other States, all of which production would be seriously crippled.

TEN CENT CIGAR.
As to cigars, Mr. Young declared that the proposed concessions would "wipe out the American ten-cent cigar." The Cuban cigar maker would lay down a cigar here for less than the American manufacturer receives for his high-grade goods and the Cuban would have the advantage of having his goods advertised as "Imported Cigars." This, Mr. Young said, would secure for Cuba the entire American market for all goods above 5 cents.

Representative Kichardson, of Tennes sec, asked if the price of cigars would be reduced to the cigar smoker. Mr. Young said the price would be reduced, but he did not believe the consumer would ask this reduction at the expense of the American industry.

J. Wertheim, of New York, head of a cigar concern employing 6,000 people, presented the serious effect of concessions on the American cigar interests.

NOT SO BAD.

George Storm, president of the American Tobacco Growers' Association, and also an extensive cigar manufacturer, also argued against concessions to Cuba. He stated that the tobacco interests of Cuba were not as much depressed as rep-resented; that they were prosperous and enjoying great advantage from the American market, and that in effect they now desired an absolute monopoly of the American market, If the catamary of annexation came, Mr. Storm said the tobacco interests would bow to it, but for the present they protested against for the present they protested against a movement calculated to enrich the to-bacco and cigar industries of Cuba and destroy those of the United States.

At the afternoon session President Coleman, of the New York Tobacco Board of Trade; Daniel Harris, of the International Cigar-Mak'rs' Union, and several representatives of State tobacco interests were heard in opposition to any concessions to Cuba.

I. V. DeAbad presented the Cuban view of the tobacco question, arguing that for political and social, as well as economic reasons, a reduction should be made in the duties on tobacco coming

OPPOSED BILL

Mr. Foard spoke in opposition to the bill, and presented statistics of trade be-tween China and the United States. He urged a postponement of any action by Congress looking to Chinese exclusion intil the expiration of the present treaty "We are all interested in being on good terms with China," he said, "and should treat her with some degree of considera-tion and some decent regard for international facts.' He said that the Chinese student, Chinese traveler and Chinese merchant have been unfairly dealt with. Mr. Hamlin presented resolutions of the Boston Chamber of Commerce, advocat-ing the Proctor bill, continuing in force the present Chinese exclusion act until the expiration of the present treaty with China in 1904, and urged that na bill be adopted inconsistent with that treaty, because, he said, that treaty involves the honor and faith of the United States Government.

Speaking for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, Maxwell Everts declared that the Mitchell bill would put a tax on American commerse that no subsidy but could replace. It would prohibit the employment of Chinese Seamen aboard Amer-ican ships, and this would result in an enormous difference in the matter of wages. He said that our Commissioners negotiate a new Chinese treaty in two At the conclusion of the hearing, Mr. Penrose, the chairman of the committee, announced that the whole subject would be gone into very carefully by the com-
